There may be an additional charge of $50.00 for the Worship Pastor if he is required to choose and / or approve music for the wedding and / or reception. The sound technician's fee for a reception is dependent on what set-up is required and the amount of hours to be worked. Soloists and other musicians are the separate responsibility of the bride and groom.

The facility rental fee is due when the wedding date is scheduled; make the check payable to Northside Baptist Church. All other payments are due one week before the wedding. All payments should be given to the wedding coordinator, who will distribute them.
